

OXFORD ENGLISH FOR CAREERS

Student's Book

NURSING ①

Tony Grice

Show you care in English

OXFORD ENGLISH FOR CAREERS

NURSING¹

Tony Grice

with additional material by Antoinette Meehan

Student's Book

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

CAREER SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE		LANGUAGE SKILLS			LANGUAGE KNOWLEDGE
It's my job / Body bits	Patient care / Signs and symptoms	Project	Listening	Reading	Speaking	Writing	Language spot	Vocabulary	Pronunciation
1	The hospital team ● p.4	Nursing in the UK	An admission A job interview	The nursing profession	Talking personally	Profile of a student nurse	Present Simple v Present Continuous	Verbs for describing jobs
2	in and around the hospital ● p.10		Directions The porter's office	Wheelchairs	On the ward	Giving directions via email	Prepositions of place and movement	Hospital departments	Where is the stress?
3	Hospital admissions ● p.16		A patient record form	Bad handwriting	Admitting a patient	Patient summary	Past Simple v Past Continuous	The admissions procedure Patient record
4	Accidents and emergencies ● p.22		Instructions	A surprise passenger	Emergency helpline	Information poster	Instructions	First aid
5	Pain ● p.28		A pain chart Pain relief	Pain	Filling in a pain chart	A pain report	Making comparisons	Describing pain	/s:/, /eɪ/, /ə/
6	Symptoms ● p.34		Symptoms A helpline call	Mystery syndromes	Asking questions on a helpline	Symptom report	Question forms
7	Caring for the elderly ● p.40		A care home Assessing a patient	Old age and the brain	Transfer to a care home	Letter of introduction to a care home	will	Problems and aids
8	Nutrition and obesity ● p.46		A diabetic patient An eating disorder	Eat yourself to death	Calculating BMI	Advice to a friend via email	should / shouldn't	Diabetes
			Vitamins and minerals Food intake

Reading bank • p.52

- 1 Pet visits
- 2 Mobile medical units
- 3 Hospital error
- 4 Accidents in the home
- 9 Blood • p.68

- 5 Chronic pain
- 6 Improving patient care
- 7 Secrets of a long life

- 8 Chocolate
- 9 Leeches
- 10 Death and dying customs

- 11 Typhoid Mary
- 12 Myths and facts
- 13 Anaesthesia

- 14 The return of Thalidomide
 - 15 The best medicine?
- Reading bank key p. 67

The heart	Forensic analysis	Blood types A blood test	Blood pattern analysis	Blood in history Making difficult decisions	Describing blood cells	Zero and First Conditional	Testing blood
10 Death and dying • p.74 The body after death Breaking bad news	Report of a death	Report of a death	The Hope Children's Hospice	Preparing a body for relatives Euthanasia	Death certificate	Expressing possibility	Talking about dying
11 Hygiene • p.80 Harriet Banks – ward matron MRSA	A hygiene report Test results	A hygiene report Test results	Ask the nurse – bacteria	A hygiene inspection	A notice	Talking about obligation	Hygiene equipment
12 Mental health nursing • p.86 Juliet Francisco – mental health nurse Tourette syndrome	A case conference	A case conference	Schizophrenia – the facts	A patient's life history	Email job application	Present Perfect Past Simple	Mental illness Stress patterns
13 Monitoring the patient • p.92 Taking vital signs Hypothermia	A coma patient A scan	A coma patient A scan	General anaesthetic	Vital signs Anaesthetic procedure	Describing a procedure	The Passive	Describing readings
14 Medication • p.98 Dosages	Drugs which have changed history	Patient medication	Pandemics and Tamiflu	Patient medication	Writing up an experiment	be going to v Present Continuous for future	Types and forms of medication
15 Alternative treatments • p.104 Mind and body therapies	Medicinal plants	Qigong	Wild treatments	Two healers Conventional medicine and homeopathy	Advice to a friend via email	Giving reasons	Types of therapy

Speaking activities • p.110

Grammar reference • p.116

Listening scripts • p.125

Glossary • p.132